AN INTENSIVE WORKSHOP WITH INDIE FILMMAKERS
RANDALL DOTTIN AND CRAIG T. WILLIAMS

SPONSORED BY RED WALL PRODUCTIONS

October 14-16, 2011

Randall Dottin was Gold Medal Winner at the 2004 Student Academy Awards, DGA Award Best African American Filmmaker and recently named by INDIEWIRE Magazine as one of the Ten Exciting New Voices in Black Cinema. His latest short film LIFTED, sponsored by Fox Searchlights program for emerging directors has screened in film festivals all over the country. Randall was co-recipient of the $100,000 Alfred P. Sloan Feature Film grant for INDELIBLE, his first feature film as a director. The film is currently in post-production.

Craig T. Williams, CEO off film company Red Wall Productions, Craig has produced over 25 film projects including independent short films, promotional videos, educational films, actor reels and the ground-breaking documentary Black Sorority Project. Writer of over 20 short films, including the award winning short films Allergic To Nuts and Drawing Angel, Craig's feature screenplays include: Cabbie Couture, Cape of Good Hope (just optioned), Soft Place to Fall (3rd Place Winner in 2009 Organization of Black Screenwriters Screenplay Contest), Jimmie and Game Night. He is currently in pre-production for the feature film Once Upon This Aisle, shooting this winter in Barbados. The film reunites TV's Soul Food sisters Malinda Williams and Vanessa Williams.
